

Track Group Completes Long-Term Debt Restructuring

SALT LAKE CITY, July 15, 2015 - Track Group, Inc. (OTCQX: TRCK), a global tracking solutions company, announced today that it has restructured $28.0 million of its short-term debt, which is anticipated to substantially improve the Company's free cash flow and financial condition.

The Company restructured and consolidated its existing current debt of $28.0 million USD with an amendment to the Company's existing Facility Agreement with its lender, Conrent Invest through its compartment Safety II. The $30.4 million USD facility, effective June 30, 2015, will bear interest at an annual fixed rate of 8%, is unsecured, includes a no-cost voluntary prepayment option, and matures on July 31, 2018. Proceeds will be used to consolidate existing loans that mature over the next six to nine months, including fees and accrued interest through January 2016.

"The restructuring of our existing debt facility illustrates our lender's confidence and commitment in our business model and strategic direction both domestically and internationally," said John Merrill, Track Group Chief Financial Officer. "We took advantage of favorable terms to create a stronger capital structure improving liquidity and flexibility to support our priorities for cash flow; invest in our global platform-as-a-service business, fund acquisitions, and provide support for our continued growth momentum."
